"There is no course of which I know that will inform, inspire, and motivate Christians for world evangelism like Perspectives...It will stretch your mind, warm your heart and stir your will."

- Billy Graham Upcoming Courses God is on the Move God has been moving among the nations to show Himself as the true God and to reconcile people to Himself through Jesus. Throughout history God has used His people to accomplish His purposes. We are His chosen tools to communicate His salvation to all people of all cultures. God is always seeking strategic participants to aid in carrying out His plan for world evangelization. Discover the Course He Has Charted The primary idea is that God will fulfill His purposes. The certainty that He will see it fulfilled makes His invitation to join Him in His mission a matter of privilege. He is enlisting His followers to lead lives of huge significance. Discovering that vision makes this Perspectives course valuable, and perhaps crucial, for any Christian. We are offering you an opportunity to learn about God's intentions and actions in the world through this course. You will see God bigger and more majestic than ever before. The Bible will become more purposeful and intent than ever before. Multiple Perspectives Each week a different speaker will enlighten you, and you will be motivated to examine your perspective in several different ways:

- Biblical Perspective

Understand the Bible as one book with one major theme with practical implications for your life.

- Historical Perspective

Discover how God has been working through history to accomplish His ultimate purpose.

- Cultural Perspective

Learn how to recognize and overcome barriers to cross-cultural communication. Learn how to serve effectively and pray insightfully for all the peoples of the earth.

- Strategic Perspective

Discover how God is achieving His plan for world evangelization. See how your gifts and resources can be strategically used within God's plans.

"Perspectives came like a storm in my life. The course realigned my life priorities considerably. It helped me discover a greater plan that God had for my life, which was hidden to me for years. From building a software company in Bangalore, the Lord is now calling me for a greater responsibility of facilitating a people movement among a 13-16 million Indian community".

- KC George, Director, Stylus Systems Pvt. Ltd. Bangalore.

"My worldview of missions was revolutionised by studying the course for a year with like-minded men. "

- K. Rajendran, General Secretary, India Missions Association. Chennai

"It will show the permanence, the complexity, the scope, and yet the obligation deriving from the feasibility of the emergency task to which all who acknowledge Jesus Christ as Lord are called".

-Ralph Winter, Founder US Center for World Missions

"Perspectives is a window to what God has done in the past. It will help envision the future mission strategies and methods appropriate to time and cultures.

- Rev. Dr. Leaderwell Pohsngap, Principal, Union Biblical Seminary Organized by FES
